Thank You

There are not enough words to fully express our heartfelt gratitude for the sympathy, love and support numerous people and organisations have extended to the Parkes and Fraser families at the passing of our beloved Mother, Sister and Aunt –
Margaret Parkes (née Fraser).

We appreciate the contributions many people have made to afford Margaret a fitting funeral service:

- ❖ St George's Church – Father Rudy Laws, Rev Gale Prinsloo and Peter Vieyra for the compassionate service
- ❖ St George's Church – the Floral team, especially Fern Emanuel and Jill Fraser for the magnificent floral display they created, and Ecozest for the beautiful flowers on the coffin
- ❖ St George's Church – the Funeral Tea service team for ensuring a smooth tea service for all attendees and for all who catered including Salt & Petal and Seattle Coffee
- ❖ St George's Church – the Staff for all their assistance towards the arrangements for the Funeral Service.
- ❖ Steve Collins and Edgar Willis of the Knysna Pipe Band for the heartfelt renditions of Highland music.
- ❖ The Knysna Sea Cadets – who acted as Pallbearers and Guard of Honour and who discharged their duties with the utmost respect to the Late Mrs Parkes.
- ❖ HS Perks Funeral Home and Werner for the compassion and gentle guidance given in respect of the formalities and arrangements for the funeral service.

We thank you all.

George and Jim Parkes and family members

Until we meet again, may God hold you in the palm of His hand.

MEET LOUISE

This Pretty ginger-and-white girl is under two years old and full of youthful energy. She loves racing around the cattery and playing with the other young cats, making her the perfect companion for another playful feline looking for a friend. Louise is friendly and affectionate with people, without being clingy. When playtime is over, she's quite happy to curl up for a nap by the heater. If you can give her a sunny spot of her own in a real home, adopt Louise today.

If you would like more info about animals available for adoption, please feel free to contact our office on 044 384 1603

Fishy Business

Garden Route locals are lucky to live where fresh fish and seafood are readily available.

I love fresh fish, preferably fried, but no thick batter.

Catches today are nothing like they were in our grandparents' time.

The reason? Overfishing, illegal fishing and destructive catch methods like bottom trawling.

Around 31% of South Africa's commercial fishery stocks are either heavily depleted or have collapsed – reflecting a global pattern.

This is not new. I remember breaking a news story about our collapsed and over-exploited fish stocks many years ago, which led to bans on catching certain species.

At the time the news editor asked how one would know what fish species to avoid buying or eating in restaurants. None of us knew.

Luckily, the SA branch of the World Wildlife Fund (WWF) launched its Southern African Sustainable Seafood Initiative (SASSI) soon afterwards. SASSI produced a little pocket consumer guide using a "traffic light" system to tell you which seafood you could eat with a clear conscience (the green list), which you should think twice about (orange list) and which never to buy because stocks are so low or it is illegal to sell them in SA (the red list).

I use it often. Now you can download the SASSI app onto your phone.

So if this happened long ago, why am I writing about it this week?

Because WWF has just released its latest SASSI report, and I was delighted to read that "top South African celebrity chefs" have called on seafood sellers and suppliers to ensure their supply chains practise "more responsible fishing".

Fishing "sustainably" simply means catching only a certain amount of a fish species annually, calculated scientifically, to ensure that there are enough left to breed and replenish stocks.

Chef Greg Henderson, a guest judge on MasterChef SA, says ensuring seafood is sustainable means looking beyond the fish itself.

"It should include an understanding of where it comes from, who caught it and the impact on marine ecosystems."

Staff from WWF's SASSI programme have been working with seafood suppliers and supermarkets to help them understand about sustainability and assess how well they are doing.

This week's report lists the percentage of seafood at each participating retailer that meets the sustainability criteria: Woolworths: 80%; Pick n Pay: 71%; Food Lover's Market: 63%; Shoprite Checkers: 58%; Spar: 53%.

Sir David Attenborough's brilliant documentary Ocean shows how destructive many fishing practices are – quite horrific - but the good news is it also shows how quickly marine life can bounce back once humans stop practices like overfishing and bottom-trawling.

"If we save the sea," Attenborough says, "we save our world."

You can help save the sea by downloading the SASSI app at <https://wwfsassi.co.za>.

Then next time you're buying fish or eating out, you'll know whether to "tuck in (green), think twice, (orange) or say no thanks (red)".

Some examples: Deep sea hake, Yellowfin tuna and Yellowtail are all green.

Gurnard, Panga Seabream and certain Kinglip are orange.

Langoustine, West Coast rock lobster, Galjoen, White Steenbras, White Musselcracker and White Stumpnose are all red.

Quite an eye-opener, isn't it?

Wishing you all sustainable seafood scoffing.

EVERY VOTE FOR THE DA BRINGS KNYSNA CLOSER TO A CLEAN, STABLE GOVERNMENT

8 SEATS HELD
BY THE DA

3 MORE SEATS
FOR A MAJORITY

10 SEATS HELD
BY OTHER PARTIES

The DA currently holds 8 seats and is in opposition.
A majority requires 11 of 21.

11 IS OUR MAGIC NUMBER!

YOU GET 3 BALLOTS ON ELECTION DAY

WARD BALLOT

VOTE FOR YOUR COUNCILLOR

- THE CANDIDATE WITH THE MOST VOTES WINS
- KNYSNA HAS 11 WARD COUNCILLORS

PR BALLOT

THE PARTY WHO WILL RUN THE COUNCIL

- VOTES HELP DETERMINE HOW MANY COUNCIL SEATS EACH PARTY RECEIVES
- KNYSNA HAS 10 PR COUNCILLORS

DISTRICT BALLOT

THE PARTY FOR THE DISTRICT COUNCIL

- HELP DETERMINE PARTY REPRESENTATION ON THE GARDEN ROUTE DISTRICT MUNICIPALITY
- REPRESENTATIVES MAKE DECISIONS ON KEY REGIONAL SERVICES AND INFRASTRUCTURE

NB: Your Ward Ballot actually counts twice - once to choose the councillor in charge of your Ward, and again, together with the PR ballot, to determine the final composition of your council.

VOTE DA ON ALL THREE BALLOTS.
EVERY SEAT MATTERS. EVERY VOTE COUNTS.
